The First Accessible Journey into the Heart of Judaism

Starting August 24, 2026, Jews from every background will come together for 18Forty's Talmud Daily — a new 40-week program designed to make the Talmud accessible and part of everyday life. Almost 1,500 people already signed up, and we'd love for you to join.

Talmud Daily is free, and includes short, ten-minute recorded video sessions released four days a week, Monday through Thursday — watchable anytime, with no Hebrew or background required. Every Friday, we'll introduce some of the greatest Jewish educators and scholars in the world, bringing deeper context and insight into the learning.

Whether learning Talmud feels completely new to you, or you've just struggled to find the time to make it part of your everyday life, this program is for you. We'd love for you to join us on this journey. To sign up or learn more, visit TalmudDaily.org.
